

Krzysztof Rybiński – a distinguished Polish economist to become a new member of Supervisory Board of MCI Group.

23.06.2008

By virtue of resolution of General Shareholders' Meeting of June 20, Mr. Krzysztof Rybiński, joined the Supervisory Board of MCI Group.

Mr. Rybiński graduated Warsaw University, faculties of Mathematics and Computer Science and Economics. There he also obtained a Ph.D. in Economics with a specialization in Econometrics.

He worked as an IT specialist in a Japanese computer company, then as a researcher at faculty of Economics, Warsaw University. He was also a consultant with the World Bank, Central-Eastern Europe University and Administrative Director of the Central and East European Economic Research Center.

In 1997, he became chief economist and at ING Bank in Warsaw, from 2001, he was chief economist and at BZ WBK Bank, in the years 2002-2004 he was chief economist at BPH Bank. He was President of Polish Association of Business Economists and member of board of the Polish Economists Society.

Author of numerous scientific and press articles on economics.

From 25 March 2004 to 2 January 2008 - Deputy Governor of the National Bank of Poland. In April 2008, he began work at Ernst & Young, where he leads the economic strategy team.

"We believe that a person like Mr. Krzysztof Rybiński – a distinguished Polish economist, and among others, Vice President of National Bank of Poland will bring us many invaluable competences, experiences and relations to the MCI Group," said Tomasz Czechowicz, Managing Partner of MCI Group.